

Change the way a kitchen is run forever?

Are you tired of walking into a pub or restaurant and seeing the same meals presented in the same way by the same type of staff? Do you get a little disgruntled after thinking you have found a new dish, only to see the exact same dish on three other menus? If you do, we should meet, my name is George Jenkinson from The Chiltern Brewery. We're looking for help to continue the work we've begun in developing our award-winning pub kitchen at The Farmers' Bar at The King's Head in Aylesbury. We are about to embark on a journey to create new and exciting dishes and in the process of transforming the perception of good quality.

If you are a creative, energetic Head Chef who wants to help us Develop our business, or if you have ever thought that if you were involved in running a kitchen you would do things differently, we definitely want to meet you.

For more information call me on 01296 613647, I'll give you the time and the location and how you should prepare. We must warn you though, if your idea of cheffing is reading microwave instructions, or arm waving and bad language - then you'd be better off applying to a national pub chain, or watching celebrity TV, than getting to know us.
